

Launch Lenawee Candidate Commitment / Agreement

This is a rigorous six-month program, starting with an initial eight-week classroom and home study course called FastTrac®, followed by four months of various mentoring activities. There is a modest enrollment investment, based on your ability to pay.

YES, I will commit to:

1. Attend 8 weeks of weekly classes at the Adrian Armory, of 2½ hours each, from 5:30 – 8:00 pm (including dinner).
2. Access our license to use the Kauffman FastTrac® training; and complete both the online training and class assignments; about 3-4 hours between classes.
3. Meet with my cohorts monthly during the four months following FastTrac®
4. Meet with my Primary Mentor at least monthly following FastTrac® (at mutual convenience)
5. Attend additional meetings with Expert Resources as appropriate (at mutual convenience)
6. Attend a networking event once a month (at my convenience) – this can be an Adrian Chamber event, a BNI meeting, or other business networking-type of meeting
7. Actively work my plan as developed with my Primary Mentor and complete a participant checklist (like a diary) of my progress.
8. Provide personal financial data as agreed to develop my plan
9. Support the program during the six-month period (weekly $10- $25)
10. Promote the program, improve, and represent the program!
11. In the event of an early departure, promptly notify the leadership team and complete an exit survey or review.
